Virtual Office Hours: Thursday 10-2

Hi everyone! We have survived the first month of 2021. A miracle, perhaps. But glad to be on the ride with all of you! I have been busy communicating with my other WIDR Directors and trying to simplify processes regarding pre-recorded shows, having conversations with DJs, and trying to make the overall experience much more inclusive. Please give me all the feedback you can think of over this month. We all will benefit from it. Also, Valentine's Day will likely be filled with 24 hours of DJ programming from the previous week :)

PROMOTION

Congrats on making it halfway through the week everyone! It looks like we've got another 6 weeks of winter ahead of us but I hope y'all are soaking up any vitamin D you can. You may have noticed that the newsletter looks a little different this week! More changes are coming with newsletter content in the coming weeks so look out for that :). I've been working on promotions that reflect what is happening at the station and in the world which I hope you all are enjoying! I'm still looking for any new content ideas (blog, social media, newsletter, etc.) so reach out to me if you would ever like to help!

MUSIC

Andrew Buczek

Music Director

widr.musicdirector@gmail.com

*Virtual Office Hours: From 12PM-10PM

A lot happened this week, some of it not so good. Sophie's death has impacted the music world tremendously, it'll be 20 years before producers learn to catch up with this woman's art. Most of her stuff has been on the rotation at one point or another, and they're going back up. This is also the beginning of Black History Month, and we'll spend that playing especially the Black music that was co-opted by white artists, music that was classified as "race music" and then promptly presented by white artists as their own.

WHAT'S NEW AT WIDR

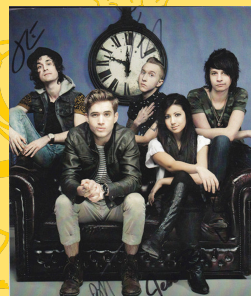

Every week new music gets added to our rotation! Now you can listen to a weekly playlist of what's new at WIDR :). Check out this week's playlist to hear Sophie, Billie Holliday, and more!

Don't forget our DJs put new shows together every week! Tune in to discover some new music and show them some love!

Molly also wrote a new blog for our Then and Now series! She wrote all about her nostalgia for The Summer Set so be sure to check it out!
