

WIDR WEDNESDAY

5.12.21

Message from Molly:

Happy WIDR Wednesday everyone!!!! Technically it's not summer yet, but in my head it is! Last week we went through the transitions for our new leadership team, so welcome all of our new directors. Read on for introductions from them below! I'm excited to see what kind of stuff we are gonna do this year. If you want to get involved this summer, definitely join our discord to hang out and talk to us! We still have a ton of opportunities, like starting a DJ show, music reviewing, promotions, and production. Also, we've got some fun plans in the works for Pride month and the start of summer, so watch out for some cool programming and stuff on our socials! Stay tuned <33

WHAT'S NEW @ WIDR - MEET OUR NEW DIRECTORS!

My name's Hank, and despite my newfound busy-boy reputation, I have all the time in the world to do some really cool stuff with programming. I'm super excited to meet everybody and see what we are capable of, because even more than music, my interests lie in the realms of movies and good stories. I have some big ideas and hope to make them happen! With God as my witness I will not stop until radio is the new Netflix!

Hey folks! My name is Liv and I am the new Production Director at WIDR! I am really excited to be a part of this amazing team and to make this station the best it can be! A little about me, I am majoring in Technical Theater with a focus on sound design and I am getting a minor in audio engineering through the MAT program. In my free time, I play sousaphone with the Bronco Marching Band! Thanks for listening!

Greetings everybody! My name is Josh and I am WIDR's new Music Director! We have an amazing year ahead of us; I absolutely cannot wait to work with you all. I can feel it in my bones. My bones I say!! A bit about myself, I am initially from Texas and left the yeehaw state to come kick it with y'all Michiganders up here. I am currently a senior in the MAT program at Western and I'm looking forward to making the most of it as a part of the WIDR team!
